Chaz – Given your resignation, the only prohibition you have is under La. R.S. 42:1121A(2), which prohibits you from contracting with, being employed by, or being appointed to any position by the Public Defender Board.

Paul – The prohibition in 1111C(2)(d) is removed once Chaz resigns. Do you want to continue with your request or withdraw it so that a formal opinion is not issued?

David -

I received and thank you for the advisory opinion.

I have formally resigned for the Louisiana Public Defender Board. See below, wherein I notified the Chairman of the Board and State Defender of my resignation.

Dear Chairman Holthaus:

Effective immediately I am resigning from my position on the Louisiana Public Defender Board. It has been an absolute honor to serve and work with so many esteemed members of the legal community. However, my law practice needs my full attention at this time.
